

Questions to think about in preparation for workshop session 22nd October

What does co- production mean to you as an individual?

How person centred are your systems and practice?

What participation and involvement activity do you currently use with children young people and families you work with?

What works well?

What doesn't work well?

What creative and simple ideas do you have for building in new approaches to coproduction- 'getting it right together' ?